

Brighter Day Books Tampa Bay – Marketing Agreement

Brighter Day Books (BDB) assists local community authors of the Tampa Bay area. This is a FREE service offered to indie authors. Your book or book series must be available on bookshop.org. This allows Brighter Day books to tie in support of our Tampa Bay Indie Bookshops. If you have distributed via Ingram, it is already on the site. If you published through Amazon, you would need to secure a third party distribution approval.

How will this work?

Brighter Day Books will post to numerous social media channels that work to support indie authors, genre, type of book, etc. BDB will search indie bookshops to determine if they are carrying your title and assist in getting your work to those locations that are not carrying your book. Additionally, BDN works to create a network for future in person author events at these indie shops. These valuable services will help you get your work around the Tampa Bay area and potentially around the world.

What does Brighter Day Books get out of this?

Brighter Day Books is a local Tampa Bay company committed to supporting local authors in the Tampa Bay community. Once you have worked with BDB we are confident you will want to continue to work with us on your future publishing needs. Let's team up and build our great Tampa Bay community!
